

SCRIBNER-SNYDER DUAL TOURNAMENT:

On Saturday, December 19th, the Patriots of Millard South headed to the Scribner-Snyder dual tournament. Taking a full team to any dual competition is a huge part of success and that is what the Patriots brought to Scribner over the weekend. Filling all 14 weight classes, the Patriots steam-rolled their competition on their way to winning their second straight Trojan Dual Tournament.

In the first round of pool play, the Patriots lost only one match on route to beating Omaha Roncalli's JV team 77-6. In the next round, the Patriots kept their winning streak alive with a 60-18 victory of the host Trojans. In the third round, Millard South wrestled a tough, young JV team from Omaha Skutt. The Patriots went on to win that dual 60-21. In the final round, the Patriots out-last-ed the JV team from Omaha Creighton Prep by the score of 64-12. The final round pitted the Patriots against a tough JV team from Elkhorn. In the back-and-forth battle, the Patriots prevailed 38-34 to win the team trophy.
